

Dell™ Virtual Remote Desktop— Solution Licensing Guide for Citrix XenDesktop™ Dell Edition

This document explains the procedure to register your XenServer and XenDesktop licenses.

- 1 Go to dell.com/vrd.
- 2 Click the Download Software for On-Demand Desktop Streaming or Virtual Remote Desktop link.

The Citrix Dell Edition Products web page is displayed.

- 3 Log in to your Citrix account.

NOTE: If you do not have an existing Citrix account, you must register for a new account prior to logging in.

- 4 Click the Citrix XenDesktop Dell Edition link.

The Citrix Subscription Advantage (SA) web page is displayed.

- 5 Download all the software applicable to the XenDesktop version you have purchased.
- 6 Install the XenServer and XenCenter™ software, see the relevant documentation available on the Citrix SA website.

- 7 Click the Redeem your XenServer Activation Codes link.

The Register My Products tab is displayed.

- 8 Enter the XenServer activation code, from the license card shipped with your server, to download the license file.

NOTE: If you purchased your server with the Virtual Remote Desktop Solution but you do not have the activation codes from the license card, call Dell Support in the U.S. at 1-877-459-7304. For support outside the U.S., contact the Dell ProSupport using the contact information provided on your purchase invoice, packing slip, or Dell product catalog.

NOTE: If you purchased Citrix XenDesktop VDI Edition, you will not have an activation code for XenServer.

- 9 Use XenCenter to install the XenServer license file on your host server.

NOTE: If you are using the free edition of XenServer bundled with XenDesktop VDI Edition, you must register your installation of XenServer. A license file is not required for registration.

- 10 Install the XenDesktop software that you downloaded in step 5. See the Citrix XenDesktop Administrator's Guide available at support.citrix.com/product/xd/ for installation options.

NOTE: The License Server software will be installed during the Desktop Delivery Controller installation.

- 11 On the Citrix SA website, click the Redeem your XenDesktop Activation Codes link.

The MyCitrix.com web page is displayed.

- 12 Log in to your MyCitrix account.

NOTE: If you do not have an existing MyCitrix account, you must register for a new account prior to logging in.

- 13 To download the license file:

- a Under Choose a Toolbox, select Activation System/Manage Licenses.

The Activation System/Manage Licenses page is displayed.

- b Under Current Tool, select Activate/Allocate.

- c Enter the XenDesktop activation code from your licensing card.

- d Enter your customer information.

- e Enter the host name for your license server.

- 14 Use the Management License Console to install the XenDesktop license file on your license server.
